

DETECTIVE SENIOR CONSTABLE GRAY

Q1 This is an electronically recorded interview between Detective Senior Constable Stuart Gray and Mrs Andrea Holt at the Cruising Yacht Club in Sydney at Rushcutters Bay on Wednesday, the 20th of October, 1999. The time on my watch now is 11.45am. Also present seated to my right is Senior Constable David Upston from the New South Wales Water Police. Also present is Mr John Harris, solicitor for the C.Y.C.A. who is also present. For the record, Mr Harris, could you please state your full name?

MR HARRIS

My full name is John Reginald Cavill Harris. I am a partner of Deacons, Graham and James, solicitors, of 1 Alfred Street, Sydney.

DETECTIVE SENIOR CONSTABLE GRAY

Q2 O.K. For the purpose of the record, Andrea, could you please state your full name?

A Andrea Margaret Holt.

Q3 Your date of birth?

A 8th of the 10th, '63.

Q4 Your address?

A 80A Park Road, Hunters Hill.

Q5 And your occupation?

A Secretarial duties, Cruising Yacht Club.

Q6 O.K. Do you agree a short time ago Senior Constable Upston and myself attended your office at the sailing office?

A Yes.

Q7 And do you agree we asked if we could in fact speak to you about last year's race?

A Yes.

Q8 O.K. And as a result of that you informed us that you would be requiring the assistance of your solicitor, Mr Harris?

A Yes.

Q9 O.K. Now as I've already explained to you prior to the interview, Detective Senior, sorry, Senior Constable Upston and myself are making inquiries in relation to the 1998 Sydney to Hobart Yacht Race and the reason we have you here today to speak to you is basically to cover the role, the responsibilities that you had in the sailing office last year in relation to the Sydney to Hobart Yacht Race. Now we've spoken prior to this interview and you've indicated to me that you don't wish to, to take part in this interview. Is that correct?

A That's correct.

Q10 And that's the way you feel now?

A Yes.

Q11 O.K. Well, as a result of that we'll conclude this interview. The time on my watch now is 11.47am.
